LOCAL PILGRIMS DEPART

Christian Endeavor Delegates Off for the Detroit Convention.

Enjoyable Itinerary of the One Hundred and Forty Washingtonians. They Travel in a Special Train. Excellent Arrangements of the Committee-A List of the Party.

Prospects of a glorious Fourth were ahead of the Christian Endeavor pilgrims white yoke. They come in pretty | Baltimore and Ohio Railroad station this morning at 7:45 o'clock. One hundred and forty persons, Christian Endeavorers and their friends, composed the party, which filled the four Pullman sleeping cars to just about the limit of their capacity. The train will go straight through to Detroit by way of the Lehigh Valley road to Niagara Falls and the Michigan Central from Niagara Falls to Detroit.

A ride of three hours from Washington brought the party to Philadelphia, where special lunches in individual boxes were furnished the travelers to be eaten at their leisure. A ride of an hour and a half over the Philadelphia and Reading from Philadelphia brought the party to South Bethlehem, from which point the train will run ichem, from which point the train will run over the famous Lehigh Valley Route. At Mauch Chunk special trolley cars will be in waiting to carry the party to the start.

Jr., all of Washington, D. C. Mauch Chunk special trolley cars will be ing point of the switchback railroad. The ride on the switchback to the top of Mount Pisgah and return will be a most pleasant diversion in the trip.

Resuming the journey, the party will soon have the pleasure of viewing the beautiful scenery of the Wyoming Valley. A meal will be served at Wilkesbarre, and iversion in the trip. A meal will be served at Wilkesbarre, and very soon after the party will turn in for a good night's sleep, arriving at Niagara Fails early in the morning. Breakfast will be served promptly at 7 o'clock, and at 8 o'clock the party will take the train over the Michigan Central Railroad, crossing the famouse cantilever bridge, securing a line view of the falls on one side and of the whiripool rapids on the other. At Falls View, on the Canadian side, the train will View, on the Canadian side, the train will stop for five minutes to allow the party to enjoy this magnificent view of the falls. The ride through Canada is by no means devoid of interest, the rich farm lands and waving grain fields attracting attention on every side. St. Thomas will be reached

Detroit reception committee.

The party will arrive at Windsor, juscross the river from Detroit, about I clock, and from this point the train will be ferried across the river to Detroit. Up-on leaving the train at the station in Deon leaving the train at the station in De-troit, the delegates will be met by mem-bers of the station section of the reception committee, who will accompany them on special trolley cars which will be awaiting them upon their arrival to the Central Presbyterian Church, at the corner of Far-mer and Bates Streets, which will be the headquarters of the District delegates dur-ting the convention. From this report the ing the convention. From this point the delegates will be assigned to places of en-tertainment and escorted to them by mem-bers of the reception committee. After a rest during the balance of the afternoon, everyone will be prepared to attend the opening session of the convention in one of the great tents in the evening. The meetings will be held in two of the great tents which were pitched upon the White Lot during the convention held here in 1856—tents "Endeavor" and "Williston."

Ample accommodations have been secured for 40,000 delegates, and although the number of official delegates will proba-bly be much less than that number, oth-ers who are attracted by the low rates of fare can also be provided for.

The convention will last from tomorrow evening until Monday evening. The party will leave Detroit on its return trip Tuesday morning, July 11, at 9:20 o'clock, on one of the steamers of the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Company. A sevenhour day ride to Cleveland will be enjoyed, and after a brief time for sightseeing in Cleveland a Cleveland and Buffalo steamer will be taken for Buffalo at 8 o'clock. Supper on the boat and a pleasant night's sleep will be enjoyed by the delegates, and after hreakfast at Buffalo in the morning the train will be taken for Niagara Falls, where the day will be spent. The party will reach home at 10:30 o'clock Thursday evening, July 12.

Death of a Brave Soldier.

Philadelphia, July 4.-Williard Ellenberg aged twenty-two years, of 1012 Ridge Avenue, who performed important services during the war with Spain, died at hi home on Saturday. He was at Cardenas when Ensign Bagley and four men lost their lives. At Cienfuegos, while aiding in cutting the cable, he saw seven of his companions killed and others wounded. He received a Mauser bullet in the chest. He was with the party that cut the cable beneath the water of Guestangme, Bay beneath the water of Guantanamo Bay, and was on the Marbiehead when she struck the mine. It was on that vessel that he received the injury which caused Central Pailroad on Sunday afternoon Central Railroad on Sunday afternoon.

Dunn told the justice that he had waited half an hour for a boat in New York, and when he got to Jersey City he found he would have to wait another half bour for a train. Then he started to walk to Communipaw, and when he returned to the station he found the train gone. He concluded he would go back to New York, and was told that there were no boats for another half hour. Then he lost patience, and going up to the ticket agent told him that he thought the service was Policeman Brittan overheard him and arrested him. The policeman did not con-tradict Dunn's story. The justice said that if what Dunn told him was true he didn't blame him, so Dunn was released.

Scare a Friend by Shooting.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 4.-Developnents show that James Dailey, who killed himself on the eve of his wedding in the apartments he had furnished for himself and bride, was the victim of his own joke instead of a suicide. Dailey was to have married Mrs. Josie Cary last Wednesday. With his groomsman, William Riley, board wadding, and that the other had been fired. It is now almost certain that Dailey, who was a great practical joker. The arrangements for the trip were made by the transportation committee of the Christian Endeavor Union, consisting of his groomsman, and fired the shot that took his life, little dreaming that the gun contained a loaded cartridge.

she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds him-self regardless of digestion and nutri-tion. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness. To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and nourish the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use. In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. DEATH WARRANTS READ

Three Negroes Advised of Their Ignominious Fates.

Convicted of Assaulting a Twelve-Year-Old Girl and Sentenced to Die in the Present Month-Impressive Scene in the Baltimore City Jull. The Prisoners Stood Like Statues.

Baltimore, July 4.-Cornelius Gardner, John Myers, and Charles James, the colored men who are to be hanged in the City Jail yard Friday, July 28, for an assault on twelve-year-old Annie Balley, colored, heard their death warrants read to them by Sheriff E. M. Hoffman yes-

Sheriff Hoffman, who was in Atlantic City, returned to Baltimore to perform this unpleasant duty. At 9 o'clock, accompanied by Chief Deputy Joseph H. Heme and Deputies Robert Fields and Jacob Amendt, he proceeded to the jail, where Warden Hall escorted him to the office. Deputy Warden Matthias and Keeper Macullar then released the three condemned men from their cells and marched them to the warden's office. There they were placed in a row with their backs against a wall while the sheriff took his position a few feet in front of them. It was not considcred necessary to read each separate war-rant, and the sheriff merely mentioned the name of each of the men and contented name of each of the men and contented himself and all others present by reading only one of the documents. Myers, James, and Gardner looked and acted almost like automatons. They en-tered the office with mechanical motions and when lined against the wall stood like figures carved from mahogany. But for their heavy breathing and the huge beads of prescription which steed the second of perspiration which stood out on their faces and brawny, bared arms, they might have been mistaken for statues. Not a word did they utter, and as for any out-ward sign of emotion they were apparent-ly the least affected of those in the crowded room. When it was all over they marched room when it was all over they marched back to the cells in the same mechanical manner in which they had come out. They did not go back to the same cells, however, as from the time the warrants were read as from the time the warrants were read until they are executed a special death watch will be kept over them. Charles James was placed in cell No. 16, which was already occupied by Joseph Bryan, colored, who is under sentence to be hanged July 28 for the murder of Mary Pach, while Cornelius Gardner and John Myers were locked up together in cell No. 20. Special Deputies James E. Newton and James Watson, who were appointed as the death watch over Bryan, will be assisted in the guarding of the four condemned men by Special Deputies E. F. Boblitz and Joseph Eaches. Four more special depu-ties will be appointed about two weeks be-fore the execution, so that there will be a guard for each of the four men day and

Shortly after the reading of the warrant, Rev. John C. Allen, Rev. A. Young, and Rev. M. Beckett, of the A. M. E. Church, called to see Myers, James, and Bryan. Gardner claims to be a Catholic, and lie is being visited by Father G. W. Brodie. None of the men had any statement to make or expressed any desire to search. make or expressed any desire to see any make or expressed any desire to see anyone except their spiritual advisers. Each realizes fully that his fate is scaled and is preparing himself to meet his end as bravely as possible. From now on until the time of their execution the men will get their meals from Warden Hall's private table. In anticipation of requests for chicken, Warden Hall yesterday invested in a whole conveil of the feathered each in a whole coopful of the feathered cack-lif a whole cooptul of the feathered cack-lers. Any reasonable request of the four men will be granted.

Joseph Bryan, who heard his death var-rant several days ago, has somewhat re-gained his mental composure, but appar-ently at the expense of his physical condi-tion. For several days past he was quite sick but vestered y be had improved much sick, but yesterday he had improved much and his keepers think he will be able to walk stoically to the scaffold, notwith-standing that he almost collapsed when he was convicted and sentenced, and again later when he heard his death warran read. He spends most of his time in prayer and reading his Bible. Chief Deputy Sheriff Heine said that the four men would be hanged on the same scaffold on which Peter Monahan was executed in the jail yard, Friday, August 13, 1897.

 Henry Miller, the carpenter who built it, was instructed yesterday to examine the structure, so that a'l necessary alterations can be made in due time. rying to prepare to pay the penalty of their crimes upon the gallows, there is still another colored man in jail under sentence of death for murder. He is Daniel Rogers, and while he, too, is praying and making his peace with his God, it is ione also with a hope that mercy and demency may be shown him, which many who are thoroughly familiar with character and the crime he committed also tope may be extended to him. He mur-lered his brother-in-law, Charles Lewis, who killed Rogers' mother and then taunted him about it. Rogers' crime was com mitted more than a year ago, and he has been under sentence of death for several

Several appeals have been made to Governor Lowndes to commute Rogers' ren-ence to imprisonment for life, and the fact that the governor has since then set the date for the execution of the four other men, has raised the very strongest hopes in Rogers that he will yet be granted that mercy which is due to a man who venges the death of his mother.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury on the Killing of Olyn Hynson.

Easton, Md., July 4.—Acting Coroner Coburn held an inquest yesterday afternoon upon the death of Olyn Hynson, who died Sunday morning of wounds received in a street fight Saturday night. Dr. T. J. Smithers was foreman of the coroner's jury, and the verdict was "that Henry Malcolm Anderson feloniously, voluntarily, and of malice aforethought stabbed the said Olyn Hynson in the right breast with a knife or other sharp instrument, inflicting a mortal w and, of which said mortal was draped in the American flag. ing a mortal w ind, of which said mortal

The evidence tended to show that Hyngon, Anderson, Edward T. Straughan, Edward R. Cox, and John Dillon were being ward R. Cox, and John Dillon were being driven home from a Chapel district saloon. Saturday night by Liveryman Lewis K. Edgell. According to the testimony of the Edgell. According to the testimony of the others, Cox, Anderson, and Hynson were intoxicated. During the journey Cox struck Anderson and the latter was under the impression that Hynson had delivered the blow. The two then had angry words and Anderson made some remark to the and Anderson made some remark to the effect that the matter could be settled in Easton. Upon reaching here the two got into another quarrel as to who should care Hagerstown, Md., July 4.—A negro for Cox's hat while its owner slept. The others saw them clinch several times and chase each other to and for. They saw no knife used or blows struck, although Anderson called to Hynson: "Don't pull a knife on me," and the latter replied: "All right, I'll fight fair," at the same time divesting himself of his coat.

In about five minutes Anderson ran up Washington Street with Hynson after him. The latter had not gone far when he rank down on the steps of Gunroe Mat-thewson's residence. He died shortly after being taken into the house. The wound which caused death was a knife thrust in the right breast, cutting into the jugular wein and producing internal hemorrhage.
When Dr. Councell asked Hynson who stabbed him he said it was none of the physician's business. Mrs. James W.

At the Interior Department yesterday a conference was held in regard to the order to eject all alleged intruders from the Leech Lake Reservation in Minnesota, but action was deferred until tomorrow. From 500 to 800 white settlers are to be removed from the agency lands, under an order issued by Commissioner Jones on June 22, the removal to be within thirty days of that date. The department has received word from Captain Mercer, acting agent in charge at Leech Lake, that all the alleged intruders will quit by the prescribed time.

Senator Wellington's Request. The Postoffice Department has received from Senator Wellington a request that the establishment of rural free mail delivery for Guithersburg, Md., be deferred until he has an opportunity to end the political controversy which has arisen concerning that service. In compliance with his request the Postmaster General has di-rected that nothing be done until July 10. At that date the rural free delivery will be established as originally intended
